TOP ATTRACTIONS

Jewel Changi Airport:

Jewel Rain Vortex: The crowning jewel of the airport, this is the world's tallest indoor waterfall, plunging 40 meters down from a vaulted glass dome.

Shiseido Forest Valley: A lush, four-story indoor jungle featuring over 900 trees and 60,000 shrubs.

Canopy Park: features a combination of manicured garden paths, family-friendly play structures, and high-altitude adventure nets.

Garden by the Bay:

Gardens by the Bay is a 105-hectare futuristic nature park in Singapore, famous for its massive Super trees, climate-controlled conservatories, and the world's tallest indoor waterfall.

The Merlion: A mythical creature with the head of a lion and the body of a fish, serving as the official national mascot of Singapore. It symbolizes the city's journey from a humble fishing village to a powerful global "Lion City".

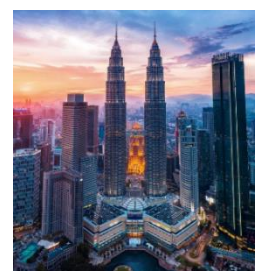

Genting Highlands: a hill station located on the peak of Mount Ulu Kali. The primary tourist attraction is Resorts World Genting, a hill resort where casinos and theme parks are situated and where gambling is permitted. Many of Pahang's skyscrapers can be found here.

two-way (round-trip) cable car ride: the Awana Skyway is the most popular, scenic, and practical way to travel between the mid-hill and the summit of Genting Highlands.

Batu Caves: It is one of the most important Hindu shrines outside of India and a major cultural landmark in Malaysia. The site is famous for its towering golden statue of Lord Murugan and the vibrant 272 rainbow-colored steps that lead into the main cave temple.

The Petronas Twin Towers: standing at 451.9 meters high in the heart of Kuala Lumpur City Centre (KLCC), remain the world's tallest twin skyscrapers. Designed by architect César Pelli.
